

BUSY SESSION WAS HELD BY CITY COUNCIL

LAST REGULAR MEETING OF
MONTH HELD MONDAY NIGHT

The city council met in its last meeting of the month Monday evening, with all members being present. After the minutes were corrected, regular business was taken up and the meeting lasted until ten o'clock. Mrs. John Ricketts and Mrs. Laurel Turk were present from the League of Women Voters.

The claims were read by Councilman Perse and allowed by the council. Several trailer court requests came up for a hearing. One by Ezra Craft, to be located on his lot facing Sunset Drive and running back to Berry street. Another was by Frank Fritzing, who asked permission to establish a trailer parking court on his lot south of Berry street between College Avenue and Indiana street. Councilman Norton argued that the requests would have to go before the Planning Commission and the council and both agreed to hold special meetings, the Planning Commission next Friday and the council on Monday, at which time all requests for trailer courts will be considered.

Additional parking meters were also discussed to be placed on streets adjacent to the down town area. It was said they could be bought on commission, but some say this is illegal.

A discussion was held on the sale of the old "hitch" lot on north Vine street to the school board, which has a garage on part of the lot, now on lease from the city. This is being done so that the council can buy the lot adjacent to the city lot in south Greencastle.

Mrs. Shearone was present and asked the city to buy the eight acres adjacent to the sewage disposal plant from the Gillespie Estate. It can be bought for $7,000. It was said the deturgents have caused a spray to be blown over adjacent ground and the odors make it a nuisance. It is also needed, some said, for storage purposes.

The question of buying a "rescue" truck was discussed. Mayor Crawley spoke in favor of it. The cost is about $3500 and industry and donations will be sought to make the purchase, as half of it is paid for by Civilian Defense.

Stanley Young, son of Mrs. Edgar Young Stevenson of Greencastle, has been awarded second prize in the nation-wide contest for verse drama. The contest was sponsored by the Columbia Broadcasting System and the Academy of American Poets in New York and the judges making the award were Thornton Wilder, Maxwell Anderson and Brooks Atkinson. Mr. Young's play, entitled "The Sound of Apples," is about the well-known mid-western American folk figure, Johnny Appleseed. The play will be broadcast and published in book form at a later date.

Another play by Mr. Young, "The Little Giants," is scheduled for fall production on the New York stage. His last was "Mr. Pickwick," 1952, which appeared both in London and New York.

Friends may call at the Funeral Home.

Time Charges In Most Places

Time will change in numerous places in Indiana on Sunday. Greencastle has remained on "fast" time during the winter months, despite the fact that everyone else around us has been on central standard time.

Eastern cities will also move up to eastern daylight savings time during the summer months as is their custom.

Club To Mark 65th Anniversary

The Century Club of Greencastle will observe its 65th anniversary with a brunch at 10 o'clock on Friday, April 26, at Old Trail Inn.

The program for the occasion will be given by Albert D. Allen of the Swope Art Gallery in Terre Haute whose subject will be "A New Simplicity in Landscape Painting." A series of fine color reproductions will be shown to indicate the break-through from ancient designing to show human personality, then motion, then out-of-doors naturalism, and on to the elimination of details—by such pioneers as Winslow Homer, George Bellows, Derain and Chatterton.

This program is quite apart from abstraction and non-objective designing.

This program was previously given before the Women's Department club of Terre Haute and was enthusiastically received.

The Century Club was organized in December, 1892, by two prominent intellectual women of Greencastle, Mrs. Frank D. Ader, who was the wife of a leading Greencastle attorney and a forward looking feminist and Miss Minetta Taylor, also a local woman, and a brilliant, versatile linguist who was a professor of romance languages in DePauw University.

The current president is Mrs. Harry Moore, and the anniversary committee consists of Mrs. L. C. Goodhue, Mrs. Wallace Graves, Mrs. Frank McKenna, Miss Lela Walls and Mrs. John Wittich.

An Open Letter To All Parents

Dear Parents:

Congratulations on having a son interested in participating in baseball under the sponsorship of the Greencastle Boys League of baseball. Over 100 boys have registered.

The sponsoring group is composed in the main of fathers who have sons in the eight and twelve age group. A few have sons just under 8 and just over twelve. We look forward to having a program for twelve to fourteen and fourteen to sixteen year old boys. Obviously we are planning and building for the future.

Your son will be asked to follow certain rules of conduct in the baseball program and in his home life. These rules will be explained in the training sessions which begin April 29th. The training period lasts four weeks. There will be a week of try-outs at the end of which each lad will be assigned to his team. The following week each team will practice and thereafter a twelve game schedule will be played.

We do not want to lose the interest of one boy; accordingly, we solicit the earnest support of every mother and father.

This coming Friday, April 26th, at 7:30 p. m. there will be a clinic conducted for coaches, team managers, umpires and other personnel.

Twenty five men have volunteered their time and services in the above categories and more men will be welcome. The clinic will be held at the former youth center now owned by the Greencastle Lions club.

Baseballs, bats, practice equipment, T shirts, caps, ground keeping equipment and incidental costs money. Also there is the expense of insurance for each boy in case of accidental injury. Coach Robert Harvey of DePauw

Truman Yunker Gets Fellowship

A Fulbright Fellowship for Caribbean research has been awarded to Dr. Truman G. Yunker, emeritus botany professor and herbarium curator at DePauw University.

According to Dean Robert H. Farber, the fellowship was requested for Dr. Yunker by the University College of the West Indies in Jamaica.

Dr. Yunker has been granted a leave of absence from his curatorship for the 1957-58 academic year and will participate in a continuing study of Jamaican flora.

The world's only living authority on the Piperaceae plant family, he served as DePauw's notary-bacteriology department head from 1921 until his retirement last June.

Fulbright Fellowships are awarded by the U. S. State Department and include a basic stipend plus separate allowances for round-trip transportation, travel and living expenses, and academic supplies.

Scheduled to leave for Jamaica in November, Dr. Yunker first taught botany at Manual Training high school in Indianapolis and joined the DePauw faculty in 1919.

He has authored several books and more than 100 articles for learned journals, and has conducted extensive botanical research in Central America and on Pacific islands.

Four years ago Dr. Yunker received both a Guggenheim Fellowship and a National Science Foundation grant to make the first comprehensive study of Tonga Island flora.

He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the Indiana Academy of Science; a member of the American Society of Naturalists, Botanical Society of America, and Sigma Xi; and an associate biologist of Honolulu's Bishop Museum.

Educated at Michigan State College, the University of Nebraska, and the University of Illinois, he was awarded the honorary doctor of science degree by Michigan State in 1941.

TORNADOES HIT TEXAS FOR 4TH DAY IN A ROW

LONE STAR STATE HAS HAD
32 TWISTERS SINCE
FRIDAY

A tornado dotted squall line stretching from central Nebraska to Texas edged slowly eastward today, dumping an inch of rain and more throughout its 700 mile length.

A smaller band of weather turbulence to the east dumped heavy rains along sections of the Mississippi Valley and western Tennessee.

A United Press tally showed at least nine states killed in the latest outbreak of violent weather that began Saturday. Three persons were reported missing and more than 37 others were injured.

At least seven tornadoes battered Texas Monday and tornado alerts were issued for nine states in the storm belt. The last of the alerts was ended at 3 a. m. today with no further damage reported.

The seven twisters in Texas brought the state's total since Friday to at least 32. The tornadoes damaged several buildings, but injured no one.

Heavy rains also hit in the Ohio Valley and the Appalachians. At Voeurn, Va., a flash flood washed away five cars Monday and caused other property damage. Only the New England states, Florida and the Gulf Coast failed to receive heavy rains. Showers occurred in the Central Rockies, Utah and Wyoming during the night.

Cooler weather invaded the east breaking that area's short lived heat wave. Temperatures dropped an average of 20 degrees Monday from Sunday's record highs.

Two Injured In Truck-Car Crash

Two men were injured shortly before noon in a truck-car crash on the Indianapolis Road a short distance west of Mason's grocery.

Injured were: Wally O'Brien, 33, Indianapolis, contusions.

Fred F. Fisher, 21, Coatesville R. 2, head and leg injuries.

City police reported that Fisher was driving east in a 1951 Chevrolet truck belonging to the Collier Lumber Co. of Coatesville. O'Brien was driving west in a 1955 Pontiac after a business call at the IBM plant for the Ulrich Chemical Co. of Indianapolis.

Police said the lumber truck suddenly skidded on the wet pavement and slid sideways in front of the Pontiac.

Herb Clemons, Indianapolis, Mid-State Trucking Company, administered first aid to O'Brien while police were getting an ambulance to take the injured man to the Putnam county hospital. Clemons was some distance behind O'Brien's car when the accident occurred.

O'Brien, according to the police, is a brother of Buckshot O'Brien, former Butler University basketball star.

Both men were being treated at the hospital at 12:30 p. m. and it was believed they would be released later in the day.

Across The Counter

"Your liability limits should be increased," I told a merchant carrying $25,000/$50,000 bodily injury coverage. "At one time that might have been enough, but now it is far below the kind of protection you need."

"Why do I need so much more?" the merchant asked. "Principally because the public's conception of the amount of indemnity an injured party is entitled to has undergone a fundamental change," I replied.

"It is based now on making a genuinely adequate monetary award for the victim's loss of earning power, as well as compensation for the actual medical expenses sustained. Also, some reimbursement for the discomfort, pain, and trouble that the accident caused."

"And the factor is this: A serious accident which takes place today is never settled promptly. It may take a couple of years before the law suit ever comes to trial. And since the cost of living keeps advancing, a jury several years from now may award a lot more than we'd think justified by today's prices. As a result, the award may be twice as large as would have been thought possible at the time the insurance was bought."

The merchant nodded. "I think you're right. Let's raise it to $100,000/$300,000."

May we serve your insurance needs too?

The muscles, bones and tendons of the youth's left leg above the ankle were mangled, doctors said. They said the boy lost a lot of blood.

FORMER STATE HIGHWAY OFFICIALS FAIL TO WAIVER

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—Two central figures in Indiana's highway scandal, flanked by lawyers who advised them not to waive immunity from prosecution, apparently declined today to testify before a grand jury investigating stories of land buying windfalls.

Former highway chairman Virgil W. Smith and former chief of right of way buyer Nile Tevenghough appeared at the Marion County courthouse in answer to subpoenas.

But their attorneys told them not to waive immunity. That meant that if they testified without signing a waiver anything they said in secret to the grand jury could not be held against them. Prosecutor John Tindler said he would not let them testify if they failed to waive immunity.

Make Dangerous Leads Against Slam Contracts

By Alfred Sheinwold

You can often afford to make a safe lead against a part score or game contract. When declarer has come to the end of his easy tricks, he will have to come to you.

Slams are different. Sometimes declarer can rattle off 12 tricks as soon as he gains the lead. In such cases, your only chance is to take the first two tricks. At other times, declarer must give up the lead once to develop his 12 tricks, and you must be ready to take a second trick then or never.

In short, you must make an attacking lead against a slam.

You cannot afford to sit back and wait. The point is illustrated in today's hand, taken from last month's Goldman Cup pair championship:

The bidding was bold and expert up to the time that North bid six clubs. This was an unbeatable contract, but South was greedy for the few extra points that he could score for making six hearts.

South would have made the slam in hearts against most defenders. Unfortunately for him, however, he was playing against Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Stone who eventually won this important pair championship.

SETTING TRICK

Mrs. Stone expected to gain the lead eventually with the ace of diamonds. At that time she wanted to be in position to take the setting trick. The best chance was to try for a spade trick, so she opened the deuce of spades.

This risky lead settled South's hash. He had to lead diamonds eventually, and Mrs. Stone could then take the ace of diamonds and the king of spades. With any other opening lead, South could have developed a diamond trick without danger.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold: S—A 10 6 4 H—K 10 4 D—6 C—A K Q 5 2. What do you say?

Answer: Bid one club. You have enough strength for an opening bid of one no-trump, but the distribution is wrong for such a bid. You should plan to show both of your black suits before you think about no-trump.

Club Meets At Roachdale Library

The New Mayeville Community Club met at the Roachdale Library, April 12 with thirteen members present.

The meeting was opened with Mrs. Ruby Major leading in group singing. The devotions were given by Mrs. Wilma York and roll call was answered with an old fashioned remedy.

During the entertainment period in charge of Mrs. Fred Lasley and Mrs. Louise Sullivan the club members visited the Roachdale Bank and Trust Company. The bank officers and employees explained the interesting

New Road Dollars—Yours and Ours...

WHEN THE Indiana Legislature increased the state gasoline tax from 4 to 6 cents a gallon earlier this year, it meant an average increase of $11.52* annually to each automobile owner.

For truck owners, the average increase will be $160* a year on three-axle tractor and trailer combinations, and $300* a year on larger combinations.

Before the 1957 Legislature met, the owners of trucks registered in Indiana were paying a total of $55,490,000 a year to the state and federal governments in highway use taxes alone. The new state gas tax increase will add another $8,500,000 to that total.

Yet we of the trucking industry supported this increase, because the expanded federal and state highway programs need the money—and because we know we must keep paying our share.

Yard House for Style

Glamour and charm are combined to make this yard house an attractive and practical addition to any garden setting. Designed as a storage area for lawn and garden equipment, the house features permanent-hued asbestos-cement siding, applied with bold shadow lines where the courses join. Asbestos roofing in corrugated or shingle form add interesting lines to the overhang. Decorative posts framing the planter shelf provide an interesting focal point. Asbestos-cement building products are economical, fire-safe and require minimum maintenance. Modern and eye-appealing in themselves, they are ideal for achieving striking effects in modern construction. Free instructions for building this yard house may be obtained by writing the Asbestos-Cement Products Association, 509 Madison Ave., New York 22, N. Y.

If it's emphasis on modern outdoor living that you seek, this is the home for you. Like the old California rancho homes, this wide commodious plan provides rooms of generous size, and the view is towards the back—the area of gracious outdoor living. The living room has large windows opening to the spacious terrace which has an area of 312 square feet.

This plan is ideal for the wide, deep lot. The house has a total area of 1622 square feet and porch area of 207 square feet. Also a future maid's room or bedroom may be easily added on.

The architectural engineering of this plan divides the modified "L" shaped house into three areas. The kitchen and service area on one wing, the large indoor-outdoor living, dining and play area in the center and the bedrooms and bath in a wing of their own.

All rooms are completely crossventilated and provide an unusual abundance of shaded light. The second bath is located in the service porch and is accessible from the outside without entry into any other room. The master bedroom is large enough (182 square feet) to

Stassen Confers With President

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UP)—President Eisenhower sent Harold E. Stassen back to the London disarmament talks today with reaffirmation of this country's belief that reduction in world arms must come a step at a time.

The President and his disarmament representative at the five-power talks in London talked for 75 minutes today. They explored the progress made to date toward some type of working agreement with Russia on a dependable start in the reduction of conventional or non-nuclear arms and the inauguration of an international inspection system.

Stassen left Augusta immediately after his early morning talk with the President and will stop in Washington for a brief afternoon meeting with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles before continuing on to London late in the day.

QUINCY, ILL. INCREASES ITS MAYOR'S SALARY

QUINCY, Ill. (UP)—The Quincy City Council Monday night voted a pay hike of $1,500 annually for Mayor Leo Lenane, despite his protest that "I don't need the money."

The council upped the mayor's salary of $5,000 to $7,500, and at the same time gave its own members a $5 raise for each meeting, from $10 to $15. The maximum under the state law is $25 for each weekly meeting.

Lenane, a Democrat who was re-elected earlier this year to his fifth term, protested the pay increase ordinance as it applied to him. His wife was dead and his children grown, he said, and his present $6,000 salary was "adequate".

Knowland Raps High Tax Rates

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Sen. William F. Knowland has warned this nation's free enterprise system will ultimately be destroyed unless the current high rate of federal taxing is curtailed. Knowland told some 2,400 persons at a $100 a plate Republican campaign fund raising dinner Monday night the solution to the tax problem could only be found in the halting of increased federal expenditures.

"A system under which the federal government taxes personal income at rates varying from 20 to 91 per cent and corporate incomes at 52 per cent rate is simply too burdensome," the Senate minority leader said.

"It will ultimately destroy our free enterprise system," Knowland declared, adding that if federal expenditures had been held to the 1955 level "we would now face the pleasant prospect of a budget surplus of almost nine billion dollars in the coming fiscal year."

Plan Tests Of Secret Missiles

WASHINGTON (UP)—Air Force research rockets have reached new and still secret speeds veiling above 8,000 miles an hour in simulating the performance of long range ballistic missiles.

Authorities guardedly gave details of the rocket flights today in disclosing that the United States has arrived at the "really critical period" of development in its multi-million dollar ballistic missile program.

Imminent flight tests of prototype weapons will reveal whether the program is near the pay-off stage or is to face new unexpected problems that will throw it off schedule.

FREIGHTERS COLLIDE

TOKYO (UP)—The American President Lines freighter President Johnson crashed into the stern of the Isbrandtsen freighter Ramsen Heights in deep fog off Nagoya Port early today, but there were no casualties.

QUAKE FELT IN TOKYO

TOKYO (UP)—An earthquake shook buildings in Tokyo and its surrounding area early today.

NAMED CONSULTANT

WASHINGTON (UP)—Mrs. Ruth Cowan Nash, former newspaper woman and wife of Deputy Undersecretary of Commerce Bradley Nash, today was named public relations consultant to the Republican National Committee.

AUTHOR IS IMPROVING

PARIS (UP)—Author Francois Sagin, 21, critically injured April 14 when her sports car crashed, is recovering rapidly and expects to leave the hospital in a week, it was learned today.

TALKS AT HOME

STOCKHOLM (UP)—Pagnar Benson, millionaire Chicago contractor, has told a church gathering he was grateful to be able to return to his native land and bring along 70 relatives and friends from the United States. Benson spoke Monday at the old Markaryd Church in south Sweden at the invitation of the Rev. I. L. Lidstam.
